Dear Kinsey,

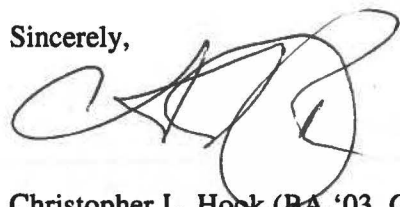

It is with great pleasure that we write to inform you that CWRU Pride, the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Alumni Network of Case Western Reserve University has selected you as the 2017 recipient of the CWRU Pride Alumni Award. The Alumni Award recognizes a graduate or individual who has made exemplary and outstanding contributions to the LGBT community and provided exemplary benefit to the LGBTQ community and alumni of Case Western Reserve University.

On behalf of CWRU Pride, we are delighted to share the impact of your contributions that have benefited CWRU students, past and present, by bestowing this prestigious award. Your support of the LGBT Center, numerous student activities, and continued involvement in the LGBTQA Committee ensures a strong and positive LGBTQ+ campus environment that supports the mission of the LGBT Center, furthers the research and scholarship on campus, and helps solidify and increase the rankings with our peer institutions and serves as a valuable recruiting tool for the best students.

The award will be presented at 6:00 pm on Friday, October 6, 2017, at the CWRU Pride Dessert Homecoming Reception in Guilford Hall Parlor. You and a guest are warmly invited to attend the reception. Please confirm your attendance and guest name to Christal Crosby, Assistant Director Student, Young Alumni, and Affinity Programs at [REDACTED]

We look forward to presenting this award to you in person. From all of us at CWRU Pride, congratulations on your selection for this outstanding honor! We are proud to call you an alum.

Sincerely,

Christopher L. Hook (BA '03, GRS '04)
CWRU Pride Alumni President
